

I listen to K-LOVE everyday during my commute to work in Portland. My radio is preset to translators in both cities so that I can switch back and forth. K-LOVE provides inspirational music and a prayer line that helps people who are troubled. It helps me keep an upbeat attitude where other formats certainly wouldn't. Please don't let this valuable service end. We need all the encouraging we can get. Thank you for your time and attention.